is the point

It seems that jockeys who use the horse as their hands sometimes ride at the last stop. If you ride me at the last minute, The jockey put the horse in his hand, It leads to good results in the race. However, it doesn't seem that they always ride on the last train. Why don't you register for the race first and then overtake it? I don't know what the assistant in charge of training thinks, but.

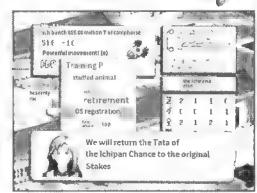

Please judge the horse's condition after the run-off from the comments of the trainer and the stable keeper.

castration	It is done to a male horse who is too hot-tempered. Castration takes three months of grazing It's necessary. Also, the sex becomes a deceitful horse, and the running race is restricted.

the point

Just because you have a violent temper, It's a good idea to leave the blinkers on forever. Generally speaking, horses become calmer as they grow up. I'm sure some horses feel like they're in the way of blinkers.

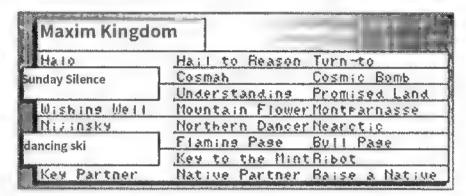

Horses that were said to have a temperament problem when they entered the stable, paddock, Entrance to Motobaba,

Teach the point

The temperamental horse was in opposition to the neighboring stable, It seems to have a bad effect.

The horses were at the very end of the stable, I put them in the stable next to the pantry, It would be better to rearrange them so that they don't get next to other horses. Also, when you become an old horse and grow up, it seems that you are relatively less influenced by other horses, It might be good to put it between horses with difficult temperament.

The stable was staffed and trained assistants, a jockey dedicated to one's own stable and a person of various occupations including assistants

They are working. Among them the stable-keeper and trainer were in charge of the horses directly, I am involved in daily care and training, It can be said that it has a great influence on horses.

The stable-keeper and trainer grew up by giving the horse in charge Here we go. Growing up increases the basic ability to manage horses, at a particular level
"Special Skills" I'll keep that in mind.

· Special skills

You may learn special abilities in the process of growing up. That's called special skills. It's marked on the staff screen. "Special Skills" may have a variety of effects, Basically, stablekeepers learn about the physical and mental aspects of horses, and trainers learn about their racing skills. The stable keeper learns up to three, and the trainer learns up to one or two. However, he was an ordinary stable keeper, General training assistants don't learn "special skills" as they grow up, If you use it until the end.

★See also page 83 for specialized skills.

Relationship with the horse in charge~Compatibility value~

The stable-keeper and the trainer are human beings. There are pros and cons to horses. That's the compatibility value.

If you don't get along well with the horse in charge, you won't be able to fully demonstrate your strength, If you leave it as it is, your trust with the trainer will decrease.

The compatibility value is the appearance of the inside screen of the stable Use the comments in to determine.

It is also possible to hire by employment command until.

Also, it may appear in the employment command after that month . Please hire me then.

*There were ten stable-men, You can hire up to three training assistants.

trainer's reputation

Trainer reputation is a reputation within your horse racing circle as a trainer.

What you've done, what you've done. Race track record, Friendship with the owner of the horse, Various factors such as stable conditions are reflected. And you're getting attention in the horse-growing areas, so it's going to affect the yard trade and the rank of breeders that are seeded at each production farm I think I'll give it to you.

· Stable atmosphere

The atmosphere of the stables represents the atmosphere in your stables.

If the stable staff is active and ambitious. The atmosphere gets better I don't trust you as a trainer, If you have low aspirations, the atmosphere will deteriorate. People who want to work in stables come after seeing the atmosphere, so it seems to affect the occurrence of special staff.

Teacher reputation, You can check the stable atmosphere by using the stable office graph and commands on this year's report card screen.

is the point

You, the trainer, are not alone in the stable. It is a stable with staff. Let's not forget about that and go out with the staff. If you treat them with sincerity, I'm sure they will live up to your expectations.

In February, the third year in business, your stable will accept new jockeys.

Then he will enter the stable in March of the following month. New jockeys ride in races. You will experience victory and grow.

After the assistant's message, I will name the new exclusive jockey.

The operation of entering a name is the same as entering a stable name.

When the name is decided, a new exclusive jockey will come.

Teach is the point -

A new jockey has come to your stable. However, you will be disappointed with your ability to ride in a race. but it was premature to give up there. They are still newcomers, so it's only from now on. As you gain experience in racing and build up your winning saddle, you will be able to become active in GI as well. You will also be able to aim for a leading jockey as you will receive riding requests from other stables. Besides, the exclusive jockey will ride your stable horses first, If you grow up and improve your skills, it will be a valuable force. But it's still a tough time right after my debut. So why not take the plunge and let them ride promising foreign horses? the condition of a strong horse helping an exclusive jockey grow That's right?

The main types of pets are as follows.

- · dog
- .Cat
- · Niwatori (literally, Japanese strawberry)
- ·Rabbit

There seems to be others, Please look for it yourself.

Teach is the point

Don't you take pets lightly? It is said that horses feel better when they see small animals. There's no way not to use it well. It seems to be effective against all horses in the stable, I'll keep it as much as I can. However, the effects vary from pet to pet, and the effects are minimal, If I could borrow anything, I would like to borrow it from a cat, with a trainer

It's only natural that.

★One day, pets suddenly disappear.

Horses purchased through a garden deal will be entered into the main command's stable entry schedule.

When he returned to the stable-house from his garden-trading, There is a call from the horse owner who requested it.

u Teach is the point

I'm going to get a budget from the owner of the horse for the garden transaction. It doesn't mean you can spend all of that budget. The owner of the horse is also a human child. I'd like to have a good horse even if it's a little cheaper. That's where negotiations are needed. If you buy it at a lower price, The owner of the horse will like it, too. But this time the rancher will be in trouble. It's because ranchers try to sell it at a higher price. It was a rummage, Let's find out the last price. But they offered too low a price, It's meaningless if the negotiations break down. It means that compromise is important. It's the same as a racehorse.

Teach is the point

The garden transaction will start in August, In fact, each production ranch has shown horses of the year as of July. At the request of Mr. Toyama, you can choose only one ranch, You should do a preliminary inspection beforehand to see which ranch has good colts.

51

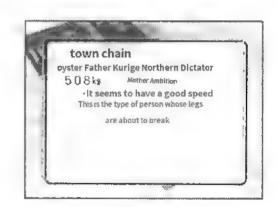

Every year after April, new horses come into your stable. When exactly will he enter the stable, that It depends on the growth type of the horse.

Teacher is the point

Yes. For the time being, I can only rely on evaluation notes from the breeding ranch, Let's read it carefully and refer to it as a reference. Let's talk about who to pick next, Anyone who wants to have a high-level staff is the same. However, high-level staff are often already busy. After all, I think it's better to choose a staff member who can develop the good points of the horse here. In order to do this, compare the special skills of each staff member and choose the staff that best matches you. However, if you really can't come to an agreement, you can think slowly afterwards instead of deciding where to go. The next week the horses would not change their tune, Choose the best stable-keeper and trainer for the horse.

the owner of a horse whom you have a particularly deep friendship with, Mr. Toyama doesn't know much about his pedigree, I entrust you with all the rights to production. So when it comes to racehorse production at Toyama Ranch, it's as good as you manage. You are also responsible for naming racehorses.

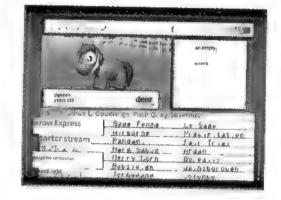

All the colts produced at Toyama Ranch will come into your stable in the future.

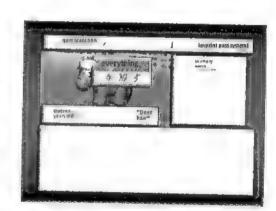

racehorse production

To produce racehorses, We seed breeding mares owned by Toyama Ranch. Seeding takes place from April to the end of June every year, In the seeding season, Mr. Toyama told me I have a call to request seeding.

The names of ancestral horses marked in red in the pedigree are, It means a horse with a cross (inbreed.

For information on Imbreed, see page 64.

There are 157 stallions (+private stallions), Not all of them can be seeded, and some horses are closed to seeding. In this case, "Book Full" is displayed. "Book Full" as the week goes on The number of horses is increasing, and the more expensive the breeder, the more likely it is to become Book Full. However, you can seed the bribate male horse at Toyama Ranch for free at any time.

The breeding mare, And if you're successful at seeding, you have one foal a year. There are also cases where conception is not possible. It takes four weeks from seeding to confirm conception, The confirmation of conception will be sent to the stable office. Even if it is not conception, you can re-seed it until June.

(However, Within Mr. Toyama's seeding budget. Breeding mares that have not been conceived after the seeding season are, It will be rested until the following year and cannot be seeded. In the case of successful conception, a colt will be born about 11 months later. A colt is not to be three years old """Name of breeding mare + number of years played""" It is called in.

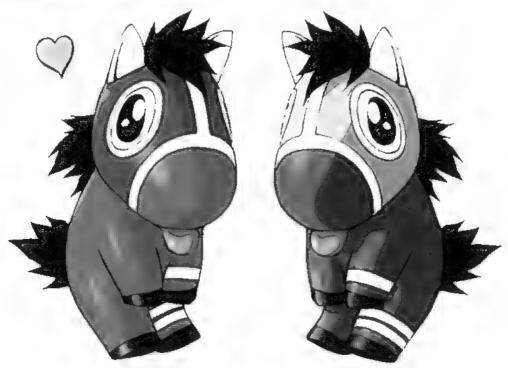

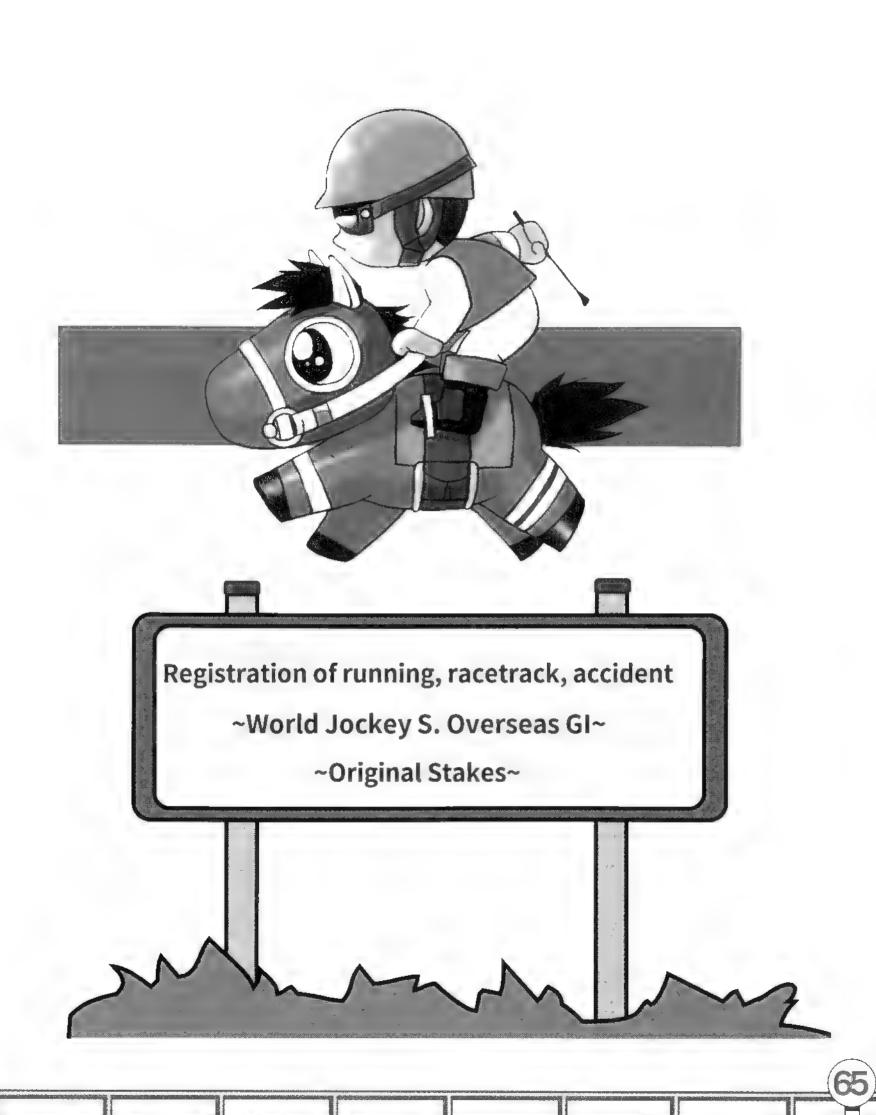

· Imbreed

within the pedigree of racehorses and the pedigree of breeders as indicated at seeding, The ancestral horse name shown in red is the bloodline crossing. It is called inbreeding when the same breed of male crosses and a certain amount of the same blood enters. By inbreeding, It inherits the capability characteristics of an inbreeded stallion, potentially producing very capable birthing pieces. Especially, like the cloths of the 3rd generation x 4th generation or the cloths of the 4th generation x 4th generation, When the same horse's blood volume reaches 18.75 percent, the formula is called miraculous blood volume. This is because there have been many successful cases in the past due to the combination of this blood volume. The ability of the production piece to be emphasized by the inbreed is varied L. It varies according to the ability characteristics of an inbreeded breeder. However, the effects of inbreeding are not absolute, Sometimes, extremely weak-bodied baby pieces are born, Negative factors are emphasized, Sometimes it doesn't have any particular effect. Inbreeding is a prime example of pedigree, It is not indispensable, I recommend you to try various combinations.

compounding method

As a possible method to achieve positive effects by blending blood, In addition to the breeders' inbreed, Knicks that combine compatible bloodlines with each other, There are various methods, such as the effect of blue maresia. "Actual GI Stable" Now, let's take a look at the actual formulation. By combining these various blending methods, The pedigree data is configured so that various effects can be obtained, You can do a variety of things by yourself Please try the compounding method.
